May 6-27, 2012 Buckman Bridge Unitarian Universalist Church SPRING FOOD DRIVE TO BENEFIT

FEEDING NORTH FLORIDA SECOND HARVEST

Hunger is not isolated to one event, one day or one season. Hunger does not discriminate by race, faith or age; it exists throughout our community, affecting people of all types: employed and unemployed, men, women and children, families and singles. Each year the Feeding America network of member food banks distributes over three billion pounds of food and grocery products to hungry and needy Americans in communities across the country.

Someone YOU know may be hungry...

Your Co-Worker
Your Friend
Your Elderly Neighbor
Your Child's Classmate
Your Waitress
Your Nurse

Food Poverty in North Florida:

1 in 6 adults and 1 in 4 children are hungry
342,600 people in the 17 north Florida counties are food insecure
More than 117,000 children don't know when they will eat again
More than 100,000 people live in poverty in Duval County

WHAT TYPES OF FOOD SHOULD BE DONATED?

The Second Harvest Food Bank needs non-perishable grocery items.

The following is a list of the Most Wanted items:

Meals in a can, Peanut butter, Canned meat/poultry, Evaporated milk, Canned tuna, Canned fruit, Dry beans, Canned soup, Boxes of pasta/macaroni, Oatmeal, Macaroni and Cheese, Canned veggies, Rice, Diapers, Nonfat dry milk, Baby food

You can begin collecting now for our Spring Food Drive or if you prefer you can make a monetary donation in lieu of a food donation. Second Harvest has access to an incredible network of national food manufacturers and distributors. Financial contributions allow Second Harvest to transport donated food from around the country to the hungry men, women and children of North Florida. In fact, for every $1 donated, Second Harvest is able to generate seven meals for people in need.

Note: Second Harvest North Florida is an IRS registered non-profit, and all donations (both food and monetary) are tax deductible.

Look for food donation boxes beginning on May 6th and running through May 27th. Let us be known for our Deeds, not our Creeds. Questions can be addressed to Chris Jarman.

The Artists' Corner: Judy Culpepper

Judy began painting seriously after retirement from the corporate IT world. Although she always pursued the visual arts as a hobby, taking classes as she could and volunteering with local art festivals, her new freedom allowed her to pursue her first love, oil painting. As a painter, she enjoys capturing everyday objects in interesting arrangements and light. Her work is also influenced by her various travels.

Stop by The Artists' Corner and see Judy's work.

The Artists' Corner is seeking artists to show their work. If you are a BBUUC member and would like to share your talents in a non-threatening venue, this is the place! There is a sign up sheet on the table in the Artist's Corner and several months are still available for 2012. For details or more information, please contact Judy Culpepper.

You are cordially invited to a concert of beloved musical favorites by

Ruxandra and Paul Marquardt

Great Decisions

Our first monthly Great Decisions discussion was enthusiastic and energetic, and the second one, April 19, is expected to be the same. The topic selected by the group is "State of the World's Oceans" and we will use the briefing book on that subject published through the Great Decisions program. We will have 5 copies of the briefing book available in the office for members to check out to read before the class. (Briefing books are available for purchase by individuals for $20 online.) Although reading the briefing book is helpful to provide some understanding about the topic, it's not essential, and all are welcome. You do not have to attend each of the Great Decisions sessions as each one is designed to stand alone. Great Decisions is the largest ongoing discussion group in the US with thousands of groups meeting regularly to discuss world affairs topics. Free childcare will be available.

Resistance and Transformation: Unitarian Universalist Social Justice History

Our last Tapestry of Faith curriculum offering for the year is one of the UUA's newest – "Resistance and Transformation". Through five Wednesday 7-9 pm class sessions (April 18, 25, May 16, 23, 30), we'll explore social justice themes in Unitarian Universalist (UU) history using historical stories, primary source material, and opportunities for reflection. Grounded in the belief that even "failures" in our history can be instructive, this program presents the ongoing struggle of our tradition to live up to its ever-evolving ideals of social transformation. Topics include abolition, peace-making, civil rights, free speech, utopianism, counter-culture, women's movements, sexuality education, and Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender (GLBT) equality. This class is suitable for older teens as well as adults. Free childcare is available.

Buckman Bridge Unitarian Universalist Church

Thursday, April 26, 2012, 7-9 PM

This Panel Discussion has been organized as a follow-up to the presentation by Baruti Katembo at Buckman Bridge Unitarian Universalist Church on February 26, 2012.

Questions to be addressed:

- Naming the people—naming the issues—should we all wear hyphens?
- How are people best empowered in urban areas?

Format: Five minute statements/presentations by each panel member, followed by questions and dialogue with the assembled audience.

Panel members:

Your Church Needs You! You! Yes, You!

Buckman Bridge Unitarian Universalist Church is a Lay Led congregation. With on a few exceptions everything that we do is done by volunteers. Many hands make for light work.

The Board is beginning to look for volunteers for the Council & Committees for the next fiscal year. Anyone can serve on any Committee, just talk to the Committee Chair or any Board Member. Our standing committees are Caring, Facilities, Finance, Lifespan Religious Education, Membership, Hospitality, Public Relations and Communications, Social Action, and Worship. In addition to Standing Committees, we do have some Temporary Committees/Task Forces that anyone can serve on as well. They are Anchor Congregation, Library, and Safety Task Force. Additionally, we are looking for some Committee Chairs & Co-Chairs. To be a Committee Chair you must be Member of the Church.

Currently we do know that we will have an opening for a Finance Chair. Ideally this would be someone with a background in Accounting; experience with QuickBooks is a plus. This is a position that doesn't have to be filled by just one person; we can have Co-Chairs. And there are wonderful volunteers on the Finance Committee that can assist the Finance Chair/Co-Chairs helping to ease the workload.

If you are interested in serving as our Finance Chair, or in any other capacity, please send me an e-mail or give me a call!

Namaste,
Gina

Announcements

Sunday, April 1st, the Steering Committee invites you to attend a brief Town Hall Meeting at noon, after fellowship. Come learn more about Board-approved steps to holding an event, class or program at BBUUC; learn what an Affinity Group is and how to form one; learn ways you can bring the church together into a closer-knit community. We hope to see everyone there!

The Hospitality Committee will host the potluck after Easter Services this year. Please bring your favorite spring/Easter dishes to share with our BBUUC family. Remember to bring your dishes already to serve in a serving dish. We can keep some things warm in the oven but we will not do complete preparation. We do not have a stove top, and we only have one small microwave oven.

Our Choir of the Moment will be singing on Easter Sunday, April 8. Rehearsals will be after the service (app. 12:15) in the sanctuary March 25, before the service (approx. 9:45am) in the sanctuary on April 1, and before the service on the 8th. All enthusiastic singers are welcome! If you have questions, please contact Marilyn Smart.

BBUUC SONG CIRCLE– April 4 from 7-9

Everyone is invited to join in or just listen. New players, experienced players—All levels welcome.

Easter Sunday Egg Tree

On Easter Sunday, as part of our Easter celebration, we are inviting the Elementary, Spirit Play and Nursery children to bring a decorated egg to church for our "UU Egg Tree." The "UU" part is that the eggs will be embellished with motifs that show some of the things that are important to most Unitarian Universalists. You decide your own, of course, but here are some suggestions:

- Images from the earth: soil, worms, insects and seeds
- Images from nature, including plants and other living creatures
- Images depicting spring, returning flowers and birds
- Images depicting birth, babies, fathers and mothers
- Images depicting our chalice light
- Images depicting friendship
- Images depicting searching and wonder
- Symbols of world religions

Symbols of the Rainbow Path of our Unitarian Universalist community:

- Gold, the symbol of the spirit of Love and Justice and Truth, the Spirit of Mystery that some people call God;
- Red, the symbol for respect of all people;
- Orange, the symbol of kindness and fairness to all people;
- Yellow, the symbol of learning and accepting our differences;
- Green, the symbol of growing by exploring what is true and right in life;
- Blue, the symbol for believe in our ideas and act on them;
- Indigo, the symbol for living insisting on a peaceful, fair, and just world; and
- Violet, the symbol for valuing our home, the Earth

Even young children can learn to handle the eggs with care, and help to color or paint them. Try dyeing brown eggs for the rich, deep colors that result. Older children and grown-ups can experiment with different methods of decoration, such as decoupage.

To create your eggs for the tree, you need:

Eggs, white or brown—as many as you wish to decorate—have a few extra in case of breakage

Commercial food coloring or egg-dyeing kit prepared according to directions

Small 'Dixie' drinking cups

Craft scissors

Large, long sewing needles

Gold or silver craft twine, or colorful cotton embroidery thread

Set of water-based craft or acrylic paints and brushes, if desired

For decoupage: various colored/ printed papers including origami and gift wrapping paper, pages from catalogues, white glue, satin finish acrylic medium or "modge-podge"+ brush

Egg 'how-to':

Using uncooked eggs, rinse under running water.

Dry and set aside to bring near to room temperature. Using a large sewing needle, poke small holes in both ends of egg. Shake egg gently—hold over a bowl and blow air through the holes until contents of egg slip out and into the bowl. Rinse and pat dry.

Prepare holders for drying eggs by cutting holes in the bottom ends of small 'Dixie' cups.

Dye eggs as desired. Eggs will float, so use a spoon to keep them under dye solution. Allow eggs to dry on holders.

Decorate eggs as desired using paints or decoupage method. To decoupage, cut images from catalogues or shapes from colored paper and apply with white glue. Allow to dry, and then follow with layers of acrylic finish. Keep the eggs on their holders as you apply the finishing touches.

To prepare for hanging: thread a long needle with a double length of twine or embroidery thread. Drop needle through both holes in the egg. Tie off at both ends, leaving a 'tassel' at the bottom and a 'loop' at the top for hanging.

April 2012 Schedule of Services

Services are held Sundays at 10:30 a.m. at 8447 Manresa Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32244
Church Phone: (904) 276-3739 • Website: www.BBUUC.org

April 1: Karen Christiansen will present "Seeking: Fooled Again or on to Something?"

As much as we can spend our lives seeking for meaning of one kind or another, on this April Fool's Day, we'll take a look at the life of religious historian Karen Armstrong, and reflect on her seeking and our own and ask the question; Are we being fooled or are we on to something?

Led by Ken Christiansen • Marilyn Smart, Accompanist • Chris Bak, Board Host

April 8: Easter Sunday Worship Service and Flower Communion with The Reverend Jack Ford

Join us to celebrate the season with an intergenerational service that includes our annual Flower Communion. This is a tradition and ritual that is unique to Unitarian Universalism, because it comes out of our heritage and is, in part, a celebration of the liberal religious tradition. We will use flowers as the elements of a communion to celebrate the beauty of nature and the sacredness of this community.

Led by Jennifer Stokes • Gary Smart, Accompanist • Carl Shrader, Board Host

After the service, while we prepare our space for a delicious covered dish luncheon, the children will have their annual Easter Egg Hunt on the grounds. Kids, bring your Easter baskets for the festivities. Adults, bring your favorite dish to share. Easter Bonnets optional.

April 15: Ramin Mahmoodi will present "The Pursuit of Happiness"

The Pursuit of Happiness is a universal theme, from the slums of India to the most affluent suburbs of Manhattan. It is even enshrined in our Declaration of Independence. But what does it mean? What are the different aspects of Happiness? How are we doing in the US? How can we do better?

Led by: Jeremy Ritzmann • Paul Marquardt, Accompanist • Annabelle Gallois, Board Host

April 22: Dr Allen Tilley will present "Climate Change, Challenges and Responses"

The climate is indeed changing, and as it does it introduces new challenges. How can we respond to fashion a future we would look forward to inhabiting? We'll discuss several aspects of building a sustainable community.

Led by: Dani Slader • Paul Marquardt, Accompanist • Melinda Kluding, Board Host

About Our Speaker: Allen Tilley is Professor Emeritus of English at UNF, where he retired in 2008. He leads the Regional Planning and Development Team of the US Green Building Council of North Florida, and is active with the Sierra Club and the Regional Council. He moderates a news list on climate change for UNF.

April 29: Dr Mark Yount will present: "The State of the Soul"

What is justice? Can we compare how I "govern" myself with how a political state is governed? If so, what form of government is best? Is it democracy? What would it look like for a person's soul (psyche) to be a democracy of its elements? How, then, should I live my life? These questions (along with a few about reality and knowledge) drive the dialogue in the greatest book ever written by someone not thought to be God: Plato's Republic. Plato's analysis of personal values and political life runs somewhat deeper than much we've been hearing this primary season, and offers a far worthier challenge to us all.

Led by Ron Rothberg • Gary Smart, Accompanist • Gina Norstedt, Board Host

From Your D.R.E.

It's been a full year of offerings for our UU Adult RE program already and the year still has more to come. Thanks to Rev. Jack Ford, Jeremy Ritzmann, Kelly Bellanger-Harris, and Ethan Dombkowski for facilitating "Faith Like a River", "Articulating Your Faith", "Spirit in Practice", and the first "Great Decisions" session. I enjoyed facilitating the "Holidays and Holy Days for Adults", "UU Parenting", and "Atoms & Eden" classes and learned much as attendees contributed from their knowledge and experiences.

The remainder of the church year holds other opportunities for religious education and exploration. The third session of "Holidays and Holy Days for Adults" will be held Wednesday, April 4 from 7-9. The second session of "Great Decisions" will be April 19 from 7-9 and will focus on the issue, "State of the Oceans". Our last Tapestry in Faith series, "Resistance and Transformation" will begin Wednesday, April 18 from 7-9. Free childcare is provided for all of the classes, and although some sessions like "Resistance and Transformation" are sequential, all of the sessions of each class are open to everyone whether folks can attend each session or not.

And speaking of classes, as you know, Pat Ray, BBUUC member and RE Committee member, is convalescing from an accident and won't be able to be back at church for awhile. Michael Bernos has graciously agreed to fill in for Pat as an OWL facilitator with Annabelle as we continue with our first OWL class for our youngest children. Michael and Annabelle have committed to teaching every other Sunday morning and we appreciate their dedication to our BBUUC kids. All the kids join me in sending Pat a huge virtual hug and best wishes for a speedy recovery.

March ended on a high note for UUs here in Jacksonville as we welcomed UUs from around the state for the Annual Meeting of the Florida District of the UUA to our city. One of the fun parts of having visitors in our Sunday service during the weekend was showing them the RE classrooms and talking about our RE program. Many of them had never seen a Spirit Play classroom before; some were seeking help in starting an RE program. It's great to feel a part of a larger UU whole!

That UU spirit is going to be a major part of our very first Chalice Camp – "The Adventure Begins" – a free, one-week summer camp for 40 kids hosted by BBUUC July 9-13 from 9-12 AM. Debbie Atkins has been storing up ideas and plans for the last two years and has been joined in her efforts by members of the RE Chalice Camp Subcommittee – Dani Slader (who will co-lead with Debbie), Joani Maskell, and Marilyn Smart. You'll see notices about it around town in places like Folio Weekly and Jax4kids.com. Plan to register your child/ren (5K in the fall through 5th grade in the fall) early to secure a spot. Each day will feature music, arts & crafts, games, and activities related to the day's theme. Chalice Camp is also a great way to introduce your friends and neighbors to BBUUC. There will be registration forms available soon at church.

As we move into our last quarter of this church year, our Guest at Your Table collection has ended. Thanks to the generosity of BBUUC members and friends, our congregation contributed almost $1,000 for our denominational humanitarian outreach through the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee. We can be proud of the work done by the UUSC all over the world. If it's important to you to support the UUSC all year long, not just through the Guest at Your Table program, then simply log in to uus.org and become a member. It doesn't take much money - $10 for a child/youth, $20 for a senior citizen, or $40 for an adult. Even if you don't plan to join, check out the UUSC's website to become more informed about the work of this important part of our faith tradition.

See you in church,
Brenda

Holidays and Holy Days for Adults

This adult version of the popular children's curricula focuses on four themes found in the world's religions: Changing Seasons, New Year/Forgiveness/Resolutions, Salvation/Freedom, and Birth Days. Wednesday, April 4 from 7-9 pm, the third theme – Salvation/Freedom – will be the focus as we examine how such different religious groups deal with similar ideas throughout the span of a year. Free childcare is available. Everyone is welcome!

BBUUC Newcomer Classes

Newcomer classes are held quarterly at BBUUC and are a great way to find out more about Unitarian Universalism as well as our individual congregation. The next 3-part series of classes are scheduled for Sundays, April 15, 22 & 29, from 12-2pm after the service. Lunch will be provided and child care is available if needed. Please sign up at the Welcome Table if you wish to attend, or contact Linda Mowers, Membership Chair, at 536-6003 or lkmowers@bellsouth.net.

This Year Marks The 42nd Anniversary of Earth Day

BBUUC will be staffing a booth at the Earth Day and Ecology Fair at the Jacksonville Landing on Saturday April 21st from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Not only is this a wonderful cause for BBUUC to support, but it is also a great opportunity for us to network within our community. We will be handing out wild flower seed packets, stuffed by our very own RE students. As in years past, we greatly appreciate all volunteers of ALL ages. Please contact Linda Gillespie-Marina at lbgillespie@gmail.com if you are able to help out this year. We will be setting up at 9:00am and tearing down at 4:00pm. Include your name and the hours you would like to volunteer! We look forward to celebrating Earth Day 2012 with you! – SAC Committee

Easter Service Parking

On most normal Sundays our parking lot is near or over capacity. Easter Sunday will be much more popular than normal and our parking lot will not be able to hold all of the cars. To help solve this problem, I got permission from 84 lumber to use their parking lot for extra parking. They are located on the other side of Roosevelt Blvd from us on Collins Road and are closed on Sunday. There will be shuttle service before the service and after the potluck. If you can, please car pool.
